

DEPARTMENT OF ART HISTORY

INTERNSHIP FOR CREDIT APPLICATION [ARTH 495]

The Department of Art History encourages interested students to pursue internship opportunities. Internships allow students to sharpen professional skills, explore career interests, and to connect what students learn in the classroom to art history professions. Before filling out this form students should have identified and discussed their internship and educational goals with an internship supervisor and faculty member. For a list of potential internship opportunities, please consult the department's list of past and potential institutions. Grades must be assigned by a faculty member in the art history department.
